

ESTHER KLÄS

Fitting, what

OPENING: SABATO 27 SETTEMBRE, 2025 - dalle 16 alle 21
MAR. - SAB. 11 - 14 / 15 - 19 o su appuntamento

SpazioA è lieta di presentare, sabato 27 Settembre 2025, *Fitting, what, la quinta mostra personale di Esther Kläs in galleria.

E se la risata (esilarante espulsione di suono; perlopiù gioia, a volte sollievo), ciò che non si può controllare (natura, combinazioni inattese, discorsi inconcepibili, quel che riesce facile trascurare), a chi avrei dovuto fare appello (ammesso che ci fosse un'autorità o un esperto o un confidente o qualcuno capace di dirmi se questo sarebbe successo, e se avrebbe potuto fare la differenza per il risultato. Il dubbio resta), e se io non avrei mai (non ne staremmo parlando), qual è il momento giusto (un breve, indefinito intervallo di tempo), che cosa significa fare tutto diverso, e che cosa significa non trovare il proprio posto (interrogarsi e vagabondare), e se cambiasse (coniuntivo imperfetto di cambiare), e se il coraggio fosse il mio amante (emoji del cuore), quali sono le conseguenze della pace, e se le nostre parole fossero acqua (nessuna separazione tra noi, loro ed esso), che cos'è prendersi il tempo (amare), e se tutte le categorie fallissero

Per la mostra a SpazioA - intitolata Fitting, what - Esther Kläs riunisce sculture, installazioni a parete e video. Continua a porre domande, interrogare e avanzare proposte, lasciando spazio allo spettatore e ai suoi lavori. Kläs ha un attaccamento profondo al desiderio di coltivare liberi pensieri mobili e al coraggio di occupare lo spazio quando le parole smettono di esistere.

Esther Kläs (1981, Mainz, DE) vive e lavora a Barcellona, ES.

Fitting, what

OPENING: SATURDAY 27 SEPTEMBER, 2025 - from 4pm to 9pm
TUE - SAT 11am - 2pm / 3pm - 7pm or by appointment

SpazioA is proud to present, Saturday September 27, 2025, Esther Kläs fifth solo show at the gallery Fitting, what.

What if laughter (exhilarating expulsion of noise; mostly joy, at times, relief), what is rather wild (nature, unexpected combinations, unthinkable utterances, what is easily overlooked), who should (I) have asked (in case there were an authority or expert or confidant or someone who would have told me whatever this would have been, and if it could have made a difference to the result. It remains unknown), what if I had never (we wouldn't be talking about it), what is the right moment (a brief, indefinite interval of time), what is doing everything different, and what is not finding one's place (wondering and wandering), what if it changed (simple past tense and past participle of change), what if courage were my lover (heart emoji), what are the consequences of peace, what if we could speak water (no separation between us, them, and it), what is taking time (loving), and what if all categories fail

For her exhibition at SpazioA – titled Fitting, what – Esther Kläs brings together sculptures, wall installations, and video. She continues asking questions, posing and proposing, and leaves the viewer and her pieces space. Kläs has a deep attachment to the desire to cultivate free moving thoughts and the courage to hold the space where words cease to exist.
